HANDBOOK

the eligibility of play.

3.6 System of play

The following regulations shall apply to Team Competition in Asian Junior Championships. Any changes in the system recommended by the Technical Committee are to be approved by the Executive Committee.

(3.6.1) Boys' and Girls' Team Events:

The Competition shall be conducted in two stages. In the first stage, all teams except the winner and runner up teams of previous Asian Junior Championships shall be divided in two groups and play in the single round robin system. In the second stage, the first three teams from both groups and the winner and runner-up teams of previous Asian Junior Championships shall play by progressive knockout system to determine nice to fourteen positions.

(3.6.2) Individual events:

All single events shall be played in two stages. In the first stage, all events shall be played according to single round robin system. In second stage, players in the first placing from different group shall play against each other according to knockout system. All matches of singles in second stage shall be played in best of seven games.

(3.6.3) Selection of Seedings:

Seeding of teams shall be based on the latest results of the Asian Junior Championships. Qualified teams from regions shall be divided in different groups. Any disputes because of absentees or new players will be resolved according to the ATTU/ITTF team ranking and the decision of the Technical & Rules Committee shall be final.

1/ in a group, or “round robin” competition, all members of the group shall compete against each other and shall gain 2 match points for a win, 1 for a loss in an unplayed or unfinished match; the ranking order shall be determined primarily by the number of match points gained.

2/ If two or more members of group have gained the same number of match points their relative positions shall be determined by the number of match points gained. Match points, the ratio of wins to losses first in individual matches (for team event), games and points, as far as is necessary to resolve the other..

3/ If at any step in the calculations the positions of one or more members of the group have been determined while the others are still equal, the results of matches in which those members took part shall be excluded from any further calculations needed to resolve the equalities in accordance with the procedure 1/ to 2/.

4/ If it is not possible to resolve equalities by means of the procedure specified in 1/ to 3/ the relative positions shall be determined by lot.

5/ Seeding in individual events will be based on the latest rankings list of ITTF for juniors for Asian players.

3.7 Awards

(3.7.1) In both team and individual events the winners shall receive gold medals the losing finalist silver medals and the losing semi-finalists bronze-medals.

(3.7.2) To encourage and promote the junior players, it is recommended that the Host Association shall create various special award to the player.

(3.7.3) The Laws of Table Tennis Regulation for International Championships. Except for those provided aforesaid, the present Laws of Table Tennis (Chapter 3) & Regulation or International Competitions (Chapter 4) in the ITTF Handbook shall be adopted in the competition.

(3.7.4) First four teams from the just concluded Asian Junior Championships will represent Asian continent in World Junior Championships.

3.8 Hospitality
